

The annual Shellharbour City Festival of Sport will be held on the weekend Saturday 1 & Sunday 2 March 2025.

Saturday, March 1 is the Dragon Boat Challenge that will be held at Skiway Park, Oak Flats from 8am-3pm. Teams of community, junior and sports teams will battle it out over 200 metres on Lake Illawarra. Come along and cheer them on and enjoy the excitement.

On Sunday, 2 March ... Fun Fit Frolic at Reddall Reserve, Lake Illawarra will be held commencing with a tai Chi demonstration class; Ride n Find family bike event where you look for clues with Smegoo; South Coast Martial Arts demonstration and come n try sport activities with soccer, tennis, SUP, My First Gym, Golf chip n putt and of course we can't forget the Duck Derby at 10am. Purchase a duck for $5 for the chance to win a $100/$30 prize. There will be plenty to do - something for everyone. The event runs from 9am to 1pm.

Also on Sunday 1 MarchThe Roller Hawks Come n Try at Shellharbour City Stadium where the Roller Hawks will run a demonstration game and thereafter, the community will have the opportunity to try wheelchair basketball. The event runs from 1pm to 3pm.

Proceeds from the Shellharbour City Festival of Sport go to the NSW Cancer Council and Shellharbour Hospital Auxiliary.

Visit www.shellharbourcityfestivalofsport.com.au for further information.